

The Next Level Everything Challenge

7 Days. 7 Breakthroughs. Your Next Level.

Day 4: Next Level Vision, Next Level Goals, Next Level Core Values

Now we can talk vision, goals, and core values. As important as they are, if you try to develop them when you're not in alignment, unclear about who God created you to be, and letting fear rule your business... those goals won't stick. (This is why 90% of people who make resolutions break them BEFORE the month of January is out (SMH). But that's not going to be your story anymore!

In today's challenge, we start with vision because you have to see it before you set it, so that you get to experience it. Then we'll move into creating goals and then validating the goals based on our core values. Let's get started...

Part 1: Next Level Vision

Close your eyes and take three deep breaths (inhale for 4, hold for 4 and exhale for 4). Once you've finished your third breath, ask yourself, what does my next level everything look like? Once you can see it, open your eyes and write it down.

What does your next level everything look like?

...in your health/wellness...

...in your romantic relationships...

...in your personal development...

...in your spirituality...

...in your career/business...

...in your family and friends...

...in your fun and recreation...

...in your financial health and wealth...

Are you sure? If not, go back and close your eyes again.

Now, do you believe that what you see is what God sees? If not, what do you need to adjust?

Part 2: Next Level Goals

Now that you know what your next level everything looks like through God's eyes, let's chart it out over the next 10 years.

Where does God see yourself in 10 years?

In order to be there in 10, where do you need to be in 7?

In order to be there in 7, where do you need to be in 5?

In order to be there in 5, where do you need to be in 3?

In order to be there in 3, where do you need to be at the end of 2020?

This blueprint is now the start of your Next Level Everything Plan for 2020. Whoop! Whoop! (I'm going to share a resource I've created for you to finetune your blueprint on our live webinar on January 2nd at 7pm Eastern. Be there or be square!)

Are you excited about your vision and goals? How so?

Does your vision bring your goals into alignment with all that you were born to be?

How or how not?

Why and why not?

Part 3: Next Level Core Values

Confession time: Not that long ago (yes, in 2019), I felt lost in my business. And I realized that I had deviated from my core values and what is most important to me. I was settling in my business. And as you participate in this challenge, I wonder if you have felt the same. So take a moment and write down your top seven core values. (Core Value List Credit to Scott Jeffrey)
