

Surrender Prayer

Dear God,

I lift my hands in total surrender to you this morning. I put my hands on the back of my head so you can search my heart and purpose. I put my hands behind my back and I allow you to have access to my all so that you take me wholly into your custody. I step into this day with gratitude and excitement. I open my heart to you.

I trust you.

I offer IT ALL over to you. I surrender, wholly, fully...

I hand my day over to you, my schedule over to you, my to-do list over to you, my deliverables over to you. My relationships over to you. My health over to you. My mind over to you. My marriage over to you. My business over to you. My life over to you.

I gracefully surrender myself to you so you can use me. Take up residence in my mind and heart so my thoughts become your thoughts. I invite you to every conversation. Guide my feet...order my steps. Set my life in divine order. Where would you have me to go? What would you have me to do? What would you have me to say? And to whom?

God, help me to see myself, my family, my business and my clients the way you see them.

Because you love me and see me, I'm done playing small. I'm only play big so that you get the glory. The only thing I'm attached to is you so I trust you to bring me my heart's desires any way you want.

Help me to forgive everyone for anything so that nothing stands between you and me. As I release my life, my desires and my purpose to you, I trust that you will keep it safe and bring me grace and favor.

Thank you for trusting me with the territory you have given me. I thank you in advance for expanding it as you see fit.

In your name, Amen.

Surrender Mantra

Even though I need X right now, I love and appreciate myself.

Even though I can't take my mind off of X I know that God is with and for me.

Even though I really want X, I am trusting that releasing the need for it to God is the best way to serve me.

I trust you God, You have never failed me and I trust that You won't start now.

I release/surrender all that I am trying to figure out on my own to You. I trust You to return it to me better than I could ever ask or imagine.

Thank You God. Amen
